What is SceneVision?

SceneVision is a joint Venture between Chicago Scene the leading Entertainment Magazine and Website in Chicago and Evolving Art a leader in LCD display screens.

These matted and framed LCD screens are the newest, most cutting edge form of advanced indoor billboards. We have taken static indoor advertising to the next level. This advertising will reach the most upscale professionals in Chicago. The screens will be placed in the most upscale Bars, Clubs & Restaurants in Chicago.

Advertisements will be from national and local brands wanting to reach our demo. We do all the work. No expense to the bar/restaurant owner. We pay screen cost and installation.

Welcome to Evolving Communications

Evolving Communications leverages LCD display technology to deliver high quality, comprehensive digital signage and advertising solutions. Because we own both hardware, content creator and consulting services, Evolving Communications is uniquely positioned to help your company communicate the excitement and energy of your product and brand through a cutting-edge advertising medium.

Digital Signage
Evolving Communications deploys its own hardware, integrated with best of breed third party solutions to deliver content that can range from image slideshows to full motion video, interactive games, and simulations. Deployments can range from simple stand-alone applications, to fully networked implementations with associated content management and reporting systems.
